REPORT ON Arrival of Russians from Vladivostock.

Made by P. I. Sullivan Forwarded by

Sir,

A party of six Russians arrived in Shanghai from Vladivostock by the S. S. "Hikko Maru" on November 1. The party comprised:- Madame Merkuloff, wife of the Minister for Foreign Affairs in the former Vladivostock Government, her three sons Nicholas aged 17 years, Theodore aged 15 years, and Alexey aged 4 years, an interpreter named Apollon Permiakoff aged 30 years, and a retired soldier servant named Muhhamedjam Khaliullin. The party put up at the Savoy Hotel but later removed to the Palace Hotel. I was unable to interview Madame Merkuloff, but in conversation with the other members of the party I was informed that they left Vladivostock on October 20 on the S. S. "Fusan Maru" and went to Moji where they waited three days before leaving for Shanghai. The Merkuloff party were the only passengers on the "Hikko Maru" who came from Vladivostock. There were about 40 other passengers all members of Madame Pavlova's theatrical troupe who have been performing in Japan.

Asked about the facts alleged in the article taken from the newspaper "Tsung Hwa Shi Pao" none of the party knew anything about any officers of the White Army being refused admission into Japan. Mr. Diakoff, Minister of Finance in the late Vladivostock Government was not on the "Hikko Maru", General Andogsky, Chairman of the Vladivostock Town Council is in Moji, and Ching Nyi Hoo La Si probably refers to Bishop Nicholai, head of the Russian Orthodox Church in Japan. He was in Moji, but has now gone to Tokio, so that none of the persons mentioned were on the S. S. "Nikko Maru".

Michaloff, Theodore. Merkuloff stated that very few people are going to Japan from Vladivostock and that the majority are going to Harbin via Dalny. Ten Russian steamers filled with destitute refugees have already left Vladivostock for Dalny and several foreign ships are taking people who are able to pay for their passages. The S. S. "Lorestan" has left Vladivostock for Fusan, but has been delayed there owing to engine trouble. She has a large number of refugees on board, but Mr. Merkuloff was unable to say where they would be landed. Mr. Merkuloff states that most of the officers of the White Army are going to Possiet on the borders of Korea and Manchuria. General Andogsky, late Chairman of the Vladivostock Town Council, who is now in Moji is believed to intend coming to Shanghai.

The Commanders of the White Army in Russia, after having been defeated in battle with the Red Army, have been flocking to Japan. About eleven of these were not allowed to land there and had to take a Japanese mail boat for Shanghai. It is stated that Mr. "Ayer Tu Muff", Minister of Finance of the White Army, age 63, General and Mrs. "Wah Kuh Pihff" and a monk named "Ching Nyi Koo La Sz" will also come to China.
